

BuildSim-Nordic 2015

2nd & 3rd November 2015, Aalborg, Denmark

AALBORG UNIVERSITY
DENMARK

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

Registration deadline: 22nd October

You are invited to participate in the annual IBPSA-Nordic technical event BuildSim-Nordic 2015, which will held on the 2nd & 3rd November at Aalborg University, Aalborg, Denmark

The purpose of the event is to create a platform for exchanging ideas, research focus and to establish cross-country collaboration in order to coordinate research work and exploit synergies in the field of building performance simulation among all Nordic countries.

Participants

The event is open to members and non-members of IBPSA-Nordic. The participation of Nordic master students, doctoral students and post-doc researches will be an important contribution to the event.

Themes

Any research related to building simulation concerning system design, HVAC, energy, indoor conditions or environmental issues is eligible to be presented at the event.

Language

The event will be held in English.

Event presentation

All authors whose abstract are accepted will be invited to give an oral presentation at the event. There will be no additional full paper submission.

Workshops

Tuesday morning is reserved to workshops focusing on different building simulation tools. The idea is to bring together the Ph.D. students using the same programs. Please indicate if you want to chair a workshop on a building simulation tool and which workshop you would like to attend by sending an email to rlj@civil.aau.dk.

Historical beer walk

Aalborg is full of rich experiences both in relation to history and alcohol. The historical beer walk includes a visit to the Irish House, an Irish pub located in a historical building dating back to.

Afterwards we will visit the subterranean Franciscan monastery dating back to 1250.

Afterwards we will drink a local pint at Søgaard's microbrewery.

Event dinner

The event dinner is at SanGiovanni, Vesterbro 46, 9000 Aalborg, see
